FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MOBILE MINI REPORTS Q1 2020 RESULTS AND ANNOUNCES QUARTERLY DIVIDEND

Phoenix, AZ – May 1, 2020 – Mobile Mini, Inc. (NASDAQ GS: MINI) (the “Company” or “Mobile Mini”), the world’s leading supplier of portable storage solutions and a leading provider of tank and pump solutions in the United States, today reported actual and adjusted financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2020.

The Company realized net income of $8.3 million, or $0.19 per diluted share, in the first quarter of 2020. On an adjusted basis, first quarter net income was $22.8 million, or $0.51 per diluted share, as compared to adjusted net income of $18.2 million, or $0.41 per diluted share, for the same period last year. Adjusted EBITDA was $59.9 million and adjusted EBITDA margin was 40.2% for the first quarter of 2020, compared to adjusted EBITDA of $56.2 million and adjusted EBITDA margin of 37.6% in the first quarter of 2019.

Total revenues were $149.0 million and rental revenues were $140.7 million for the first quarter of 2020, as compared to $149.7 million and $142.2 million, respectively, for the same period last year. Rental revenues for the Storage Solutions and Tank & Pump Solutions businesses for the current quarter were $114.7 million and $25.9 million, respectively, compared to $112.7 million and $29.5 million for the same period last year.

Dividend

The Company’s Board of Directors declared a cash dividend of 30.3 cents per share, which will be paid on May 27, 2020 to shareholders of record as of May 13, 2020.

Merger Agreement

On March 2, 2020, we announced that we have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger with WillScot Corporation (“WillScot”). The pending merger with WillScot is subject to customary closing conditions, including receipt of regulatory approvals and stockholder approvals from the Company’s and WillScot’s stockholders. We are working collaboratively with our counterparts at WillScot to satisfy these closing conditions and plan the integration of the two businesses with the expectation of closing in the third quarter of 2020. We believe that the merger will result in strategic and financial benefits by combining the two industry leaders in the complementary modular space and portable storage solutions markets.

COVID-19

Mobile Mini’s top priorities are the health and safety of our employees and customers. As such the Company has taken numerous substantial steps to this end, including among other things, transitioning employees to a work from home model when possible, and implementing social distancing policies for those employees in the field.

Operating within these guidelines, Mobile Mini remains fully operational as an essential business, including delivering hundreds of units in support of testing and relief efforts in the fight against COVID-19. Mobile Mini’s ground-level offices and containers are being utilized as testing centers and for extra office space to provide social distancing, which when combined with the furniture and handwashing stations available within our managed services business, makes Mobile Mini an efficient one-call solution for those on the front lines of the battle against COVID-19. Mobile Mini’s core business operations also remain intact, as the Company provides services to customers in each of the 16 Critical Infrastructure Sectors identified by the United States Federal Government.

CEO Comments

Kelly Williams, Mobile Mini's President and Chief Executive Officer, remarked, "I would like to thank Mobile Mini employees for their hard work and dedication. The Mobile Mini team has risen to the challenges of maintaining operations in these unprecedented circumstances. Safety is our most important core value and we are dedicated to the health and safety of our employees and customers while providing uninterrupted delivery of our premium products and services across all our business segments. Though we have been deemed an essential business, this pandemic is unprecedented and the full extent of its impact on our operations is uncertain. While our strong first quarter was minimally impacted by the COVID-19 outbreak, we do expect a decrease in demand for our products and services in the near-term, leading to a year-over-year and sequential decrease in our second quarter 2020 rental revenues. The majority of our fleet currently on-rent is being utilized to contain inventory, supplies or other products, which translates into ongoing storage requirements for many of our clients. Our pipeline of pending orders, however, is down compared to the prior-year due to postponed projects in our end markets which will lead to reduced rental revenue in the near-term, including a decrease in trucking revenue due to reduced delivery and pickup activity. Ultimately, some postponed projects could move into late 2020 or early 2021 and some could be cancelled."

Mr. Williams continued, "Mobile Mini's flexible and efficient business structure is demand driven, allowing us to minimize the effect of reduced revenues on adjusted EBITDA and free cash flows by managing expenses and capital expenditures. We have already instituted several cost-savings adjustments to our business and have reduced capital expenditures. Our sophisticated, cutting-edge technology provides real-time management insight into our business which, when combined with our newly developed supply chain processes, further enhances our agility with respect to proactive expense control and profit optimization. Mobile Mini enters the second quarter of 2020 from a position of financial strength, including the lowest leverage ratio for the Company since September 30, 2014, ample liquidity, and a nimble capital allocation policy. Notably, Mobile Mini's free cash flow generation will remain strong in a downturn as we minimize capital expenditures in line with reduced demand. Our financial strength and flexibility positions us to manage through these uncertain times and allows us to move quickly when demand returns."

First Quarter 2020 Highlights

- Drove healthy year-over-year growth of 3.2% in North America Storage Solutions rental revenue.
- Solid year-over-year rate increase of 3.7% and 1.9% in North America and U.K. Storage Solutions, respectively.
- Grew consolidated adjusted EBITDA 6.5%, year-over-year, and expanded adjusted EBITDA margin by 260 basis points to 40.2%, driven by a 420 basis point year-over-year increase for Storage Solutions.
- Generated cash from operating activities of $33.2 million for the quarter, resulting in free cash flow of $22.5 million, a nearly 40% increase over the prior year.
- Decreased leverage ratio to 3.5x as of March 31, 2020 compared to 3.6x as of December 31, 2019 and 4.2x as of December 31, 2018.
- Completed one acquisition in the quarter, strengthening our existing operations in Dallas, Texas.

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release contains forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, our access to ample liquidity, our ability to minimize the effect of reduced revenues on adjusted EBITDA and free cash flows, and our ability to continue to generate positive free cash flow, all of which involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those currently anticipated. Risks and uncertainties that may affect future results include those that are described from time to time in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). These forward-looking statements represent the judgment of the Company, as of the date of this release, and Mobile Mini disclaims any intent or obligation to update forward-looking statements.

Non-GAAP Financial Information

In addition to disclosing financial results that are determined in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP"), the Company also discloses in this press release certain non-GAAP financial information. These financial measures are not recognized measures under GAAP and they are not intended to be and should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for, or superior to, the financial information prepared and presented in accordance with GAAP. Adjusted net income, adjusted diluted earnings per share, EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA, EBITDA margin, adjusted EBITDA margin and free cash flow are non-GAAP financial measures as defined by SEC rules. This non-GAAP financial information may be determined or calculated differently by other companies. Reconciliations of these non-GAAP measurements to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measurements are furnished earlier in this release and as follows:

Adjusted net income and adjusted diluted earnings per share. Adjusted net income and related earnings per share information exclude certain transactions that management believes are not indicative of our business. We believe that the inclusion of this non-GAAP presentation makes it easier to compare our financial performance across reporting periods on a consistent basis.

EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA. EBITDA is defined as net income before discontinued operations, net of tax (if applicable), interest expense, income taxes, depreciation and amortization, and debt restructuring or extinguishment expense (if applicable), including any write-off of deferred financing costs. Adjusted EBITDA further excludes certain non-cash expenses, including share-based compensation, as well as transactions that management believes are not indicative of our business. Because EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA, as defined, exclude some but not all items that affect our cash flow from operating activities, they may not be comparable to similarly titled performance measures presented by other companies.

We present EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA because we believe they provide useful information regarding our ability to meet our future debt payment requirements, capital expenditures and working capital requirements and an overall evaluation of our financial condition. EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA have certain limitations as analytical tools and should not be used as substitutes for net income, cash flows from operations, or other consolidated income or cash flow data prepared in accordance with GAAP.

EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA margins are calculated as EBITDA and adjusted EBITDA, respectively, divided by total revenues expressed as a percentage.

Free Cash Flow. Free cash flow is defined as net cash provided by operating activities, minus or plus, net cash used in or provided by investing activities, excluding acquisitions and certain transactions. Free cash flow is a non-GAAP financial measure and is not intended to replace net cash provided by operating activities, the most directly comparable financial measure prepared in accordance with GAAP. We present free cash flow because we believe it provides useful information regarding our liquidity and ability to meet our short-term obligations. In particular, free cash flow indicates the amount of cash available after capital expenditures for, among other things, investments in our existing business, debt service obligations, payment of authorized quarterly dividends, repurchase of our common stock and strategic small acquisitions.
